Here is the preliminary schedule details. Anticipate day one to be long so planned departure from Home Port is at 8:00 AM or so... There should be several fueling locations along the way if you're not leaving with full tanks. Those who cannot make the full trip feel free to join in at any time!

Wed: (May 8th) Home Port to the Alligator River
(anchorage available out at the south end)
Thurs: Alligator to Columbia City Marina
Fri: Columbia to Edenton City Marina
Sat: Edenton (possible lay day?)
Sun: Albemarle Plantation Marina
Mon: Elizabeth City Docks
Tues: Dowery Creek, Belhaven
Wed: (May 15th) returning to Home Port

We may have to adjust or skip a location depending on weather and conditions on the Albemarle. Most marinas along our route offer free docking. Dowery Creek is $1.50 a foot as I recall. You can check out all the loop marinas at <https://albemarleloop.com> and be sure to print out your coupons for free docking. Also be sure to review fueling options. Most locations will have restaurant and food opportunities so provision accordingly.

Please advise if you're a "Go" on this so we can advise marinas and dock masters. Please text 252-327-7737 or email Heron28@earthlink.net with questions and/or confirmations.
