Speaker: Elise Carroll

Queen Anne's Revenge Conservation Lab NC Department of Natural & Cultural Resources

Topic: Lab Manager & Assistant Conservator Elise Carroll will tell us the history of the notorious pirate Blackbeard and his flagship the Queen Anne's Revenge, which went aground and sank near historic Beaufort Inlet in 1718. She will share some insights about the recovery of artifacts from the wreckage since its discovery in 1996, and the Lab's ongoing archaeological research and efforts to catalog and preserve these important finds.
